

Scarborough Theatre Guild is accepting applications for DIRECTORS for its 2020/2021 Season.

JAKE'S WOMEN by Neil Simon

In one of the best plays from the award-winning American playwright, Jake, a 50-something writer, is trying to come to grips with his current marriage which seems to be falling apart. While the many women in his life float in and out of the play either as real beings or as figments of his imagination, he has to examine his relationship with his deceased first wife, his daughter at both age 12 and 21, his current wife, his psychologist, his sister, and his girlfriend, it's all quite funny but at the same time emotional and touching.

Show Dates: September 11-26, 2020

THE CHRISTMAS SPIRIT by Frederick Stroppel

In this off-beat, dark comedy, Julia Dowling has an unexpected visitor on Christmas Eve, whose job is to escort her to the afterlife. Julia persuades her visitor to hold off for one day and invites him and his other "passenger" to the family party the next day. This is an amusing yet thought-provoking mixture of Death Takes a Holiday and a typical family festive get-together, complete with bickering relatives, an unsure priest and a budding romance.

Show Dates: December 4-19, 2020

THE STILLBORN LOVER by Timothy Findley

The abrupt recall of a highly regarded Canadian ambassador from his post, the mysterious death of a Russian youth found brutally murdered in a Moscow hotel room, and the ambitions of an Ottawa diplomat combine to explore the darker side of loyalty and commitment. The stakes are high and diplomatic careers hang by a thread. This play is an alluring tale of mystery, betrayal, diplomacy and love.

Show Dates: March 5-20, 2021

THE FOREIGNER by Larry Shue

At a fishing lodge in rural Tilghman County, Georgia, two Englishmen, Froggy and Charlie, arrive as guests. Shy, withdrawn Charlie is so awkward around people that Froggy invents a story that Charlie won't talk because he is a Foreigner from an exotic country, and does not understand English. Taking this explanation as fact, the locals quickly begin revealing their secrets, and Charlie soon discovers scandals and skullduggery amongst some of the residents.

Show Dates: May 31 – June 15, 2019
